Textbook

Randall Buth, Living Biblical Hebrew – Introduction Part 2 (Jerusalem: Biblical Language Center, 2005).

Student Learning Goals

The successful student will:

1. Understand core vocabulary and internalize basic linguistic structures.
2. Be able to read, able to sound out words accurately, with greater fluency.
3. Have memorized some Bible verses.
4. Read with understanding the book of Jonah.

Course Components:

1. Attendance and participation. The student is expected to be on time and stay all class long, and will be graded accordingly. Any absences must be excused in advance. Coming early and staying late would even impress the teacher.
2. Jonah Dialogues. Living Biblical Hebrew Part 2. Memorize them and act them out in groups of three. Then write out the dialogue by memory. Oscars will be awarded for best actor/actress, supporting role, and director.
3. Audio Drills. Living Biblical Hebrew Part 2. Stage 1: Listen to and repeat the drills for each chapter assigned until at least 80% understanding is achieved by hearing only. Stage 2: (Only when stage 1 has been completed) Read through all grammar explanations in the chapter.
4. Jonah Readings and Written Exercises. Living Biblical Hebrew Part 2. Stage 1: Listen to and read the vocab prep and the selection from Jonah until at least 80% understanding is achieved by hearing only. Stage 2: Answer the questions at the end of every chapter.
5. Memory Verses. Memorize Bible verses, to say aloud and write down.
6. Final Exam
